

horizon storms the saga pdf

Ever since people have traveled the Great Lakes storms have taken lives and vessels. The first sailing vessel on the upper lakes, the Le Griffon, was lost on its return from Green Bay in 1679. Since that time, memorable storms have swept the lakes, often in November taking men and ships to their death.

Which theories & explanations make the most sense? So far, the two leading theories are that we're sliding between parallel (or similar) realities, or that we've visited holodecks (and may be in one, right now) that have some glitches. However, those concepts are broad. I've been trying to narrow the possibilities. Initially, I've been searching for
